9.00 - 12.00

Introduction of the program

Lecture: The UNESCO Project "Saint Nicholas"

(Dr Cécile Bando and Dr Adeline Clerc)

The city of Nancy and the Lorraine University (Department Info-comm = Information and communication) are working on a project so that the Festivals of Saint Nicholas are identified, protected and preserved as a cultural heritage around the world to be considered of outstanding value to humanity (Unesco). The project aims to inscribe the Festivals of Saint Nicholas on the World Heritage List. An educational resource kit for teachers called "World Heritage in Young Hands" has been published for over 130 UNESCO Member States. This project will be presented to the PhD Students.

Preparation for the upcoming cultural weekend activities with French Master Students

Presentation of the cultural events of the weekends of December in Lorraine.

Saint Nicholas is particularly popular with children. He is considered as a kind of Father Christmas. The City is proud to organise a special festival and a parade in his honour. The Saint-Nicholas' Parade will take place on Saturday, 01 December in Nancy, but also in Saint-Nicolas-de-Port (25 minutes' drive from Nancy) on Saturday, 08 December. Saint Nicholas' Day is celebrated on December 6th.*

DAY 5 / Tuesday, 11 December 2018

Venue : Campus Lettres et Sciences Humaines, Nancy Room A123

9.00 - 12.00

Workshop: Feedback on weekend activities: Photos and culture

(Dr Cécile Bando and Dr Adeline Clerc)

Activity: The students will choose some photographs which they consider to be representative of the cultural events of the weekend, as well as photographs representing best the atmosphere of the city during Saint Nicholas' time. They present their snapshots to the whole group and explain their choice as well as the way they have perceived this popular and cultural event and its highlights.

Lecture: Saint-Nicholas' Legend

The legend will then be explained to the students only at this time in order to enable them to express their initial feelings and what they've understood from the Saint Nicholas' legend via the cultural events. The following discussion will be related to the popular representation of a legend by cultural events.
